DESCRIPTION

Home to iconic actress Katharine Hepburn throughout her long career, this single-family townhouse epitomizes New York elegance – past and present. Updated interiors and carefully selected furnishings exceed standards of luxury while embracing historical character and a bit of a classic Hollywood touch.

Boasting four bedrooms, three full and two half bathrooms, plus formal entertaining spaces, this fully-furnished rental has room to accommodate any lifestyle immediately. Graceful floor-to-ceiling windows, wood-burning fireplaces, and ornate mantelpieces add another “wow” factor. Meanwhile, the kitchen and bathrooms feature custom stone tiling, top-of-the-line appliances, and stylish fixtures.

Future residents will have access to the private rear yard, and join Hepburn, Bob Dylan, Stephen Sondheim, and E.B. White on the long list of icons who have called the lush Turtle Bay Gardens enclave home.

LAYOUT

Garden Floor:

The main entrance leads you into the stone-tiled foyer. On your left is an eat-in kitchen with a stainless steel Sub-Zero refrigerator, a six-burner Viking range and double oven, and built-in breakfast table and banquette. This is truly a chef's kitchen and a coveted rental feature. Passing through the butler's pantry with china cabinets and wine refrigerator, you reach the rear dining room. A wood-burning fireplace, wall sconces, and hardwood floors make this room warm and inviting. A wide set of windows give light while a glass door opens to the garden.

This garden is one of the most peaceful in New York City. Dine on the multi-level flagstone patio among flowering shrubs, berry-laden bushes, and the burble of a cheerful fountain. Beyond a low gate, stroll in Turtle Bay Gardens – a private pocket park accessible only to residents of the surrounding townhouses.
