Currently configured as two units including a four-bedroom triplex and a garden level apartment with a bonus recreation room in the cellar, this townhouse is rife with great opportunity and value for the modern owner.

There is easy access to all public transportation at 125th Street, and a direct route to LaGuardia airport. A one-bedroom apartment occupies the garden floor of the townhouse. It has a private entrance under the stoop. expansive, masterfully renovated eat-in kitchen. Here, gleaming marble countertops, custom cabinetry, and top-tier appliances—including a professional-grade Wolf range, a discreetly paneled Bosch dishwasher, and a GE Monogram refrigerator—set the stage for culinary artistry. The kitchen's elegant design is as functional as it is breathtaking, offering an ideal space for both casual meals and refined entertaining.

Just past the kitchen, a stairwell flanked in rich wainscoting leads up to the private quarters of the triplex, and double doors lead to a formal living room at the rear of the floor. Featuring splendid ornate moldings over all the windows and doors and an original woodburning fireplace with a handsome mantelpiece, beveled mirror, and spindlework, the character and spirit of the townhouse has been preserved in this grand room. The door at the rear of the living room provides access to a rear deck and the garden below. A powder room, coat closet, and pantry complete the floor.

Third Floor- Triplex

The third floor hosts the primary bedroom suite as well as a home office, which could possibly serve as another bedroom. The rear-oriented bedroom has a lovely view of the garden, a fireplace with an original mantelpiece and inlaid mirror, parquet floors, and a pressed tin ceiling. There is an ensuite bathroom and an enormous walk-thru closet with a dressing area, which connects to the front room that is almost equal in size to the primary bedroom. This room also has large windows and a fireplace.

Fourth Floor- Triplex

The fourth floor has two more gracious bedrooms tucked beyond a study nook that is illuminated from overhead skylights. Each bedroom is entered through a set of antique French doors and boasts large windows and a decorative fireplace. A second closet in the front room accommodates a washer and dryer for the triplex. There is a centrally located full bathroom with a shower stall and pedestal sink as well as separate linen closets and ladder access to the roof.
